

THE HUMBLE
ADDRESS

OF THE

LORDS Spiritual and Temporal,

IN

PARLIAMENT
ASSEMBLED,

TO HIS GRACE

CHARLES, Duke of RUTLAND, Lord
Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

Published by Authority.

D U B L I N:

Printed by WILLIAM SLEATER, sen. and jun.

M.DCC.LXXXVI.

Die Martis, 24^o Januarii, 1786^o.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Address of this House of Friday last, to His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and His Grace's Answer thereunto, shall be forthwith Printed and Published, and that the Clerk of this House do appoint the Printing thereof.

William Watts Gayer, } Cler^y Parliamentor^y
Edward Gayer,

By Virtue of the foregoing Order, We do appoint William Sleater Sen. and jun. to print the said Address and Answer, and do forbid any other Person or Persons to Print the same.

William Watts Gayer, } Cler^y Parliamentor^y
Edward Gayer,

TO HIS GRACE
CHARLES, Duke of RUTLAND, Lord
Lieutenant General and General Governor
of IRELAND,

THE HUMBLE
A D D R E S S
 OF THE

LORDS Spiritual and Temporal,
in PARLIAMENT Assembled.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR GRACE,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return Your Grace our humble Thanks for Your excellent Speech from the Throne.

His Majesty's repeated Acts of paternal Goodness for the Welfare of this Kingdom, claim our grateful Acknowledgements;
 and His gracious Attention to the Happiness of this Kingdom has been especially shewn, by His continuing your Grace in the Administration of the Government.

YOUR

YOUR Grace may be assured, that in the Transaction of Public Affairs, to the Dispatch of which we shall immediately apply ourselves, We shall zealously cultivate a lasting Connection between Great Britain and Ireland, as essential to the Prosperity of both Kingdoms, and to the Strength and Dignity of the Empire.

SATISFIED of the Necessity and Advantage of an improved Police, to give a vigorous Execution to the Laws, We shall endeavor to devise such effectual Means as may give Security to Property, and Protection to Society.

WE shall not fail to continue our Attention to the Protestant Charter-Schools, the Linen and other Manufactures, the Agriculture and the Fisheries of this Kingdom; and shall be happy in forwarding every Measure which may encourage Industry, and improve the Education and Morals of the People.

FROM Experience of your Grace's earnest Desire to promote the real Interests of Ireland, We most entirely rely upon Your Exertions for her future Prosperity, and We shall gratefully embrace every Opportunity of contributing to the Honor and Ease of Your Grace's Administration.

To which ADDRESS his GRACE has been pleased to give this Answer, viz:

MY LORDS,

I RETURN you my sincere Thanks for this very honorable Testimony of your Approbation. You may be assured, I shall constantly endeavor to preserve Your good Opinion by a steady Attachment to the real Interests of Ireland.

